One Fleeting Hour

When the twilight of eve dims the sun's last ray
And the shades of the night gather fast;
There is one fleeting hour that I've prayed would stay,
Full of joy and of pain that's passed.
And perhaps you may know of its wondrous spell,
Its smiles and its bitter tears;
And emotions arise that no words can tell,
As you look back o'er the years.

But that one fleeting hour with its dream is gone,
And the mists of the night slowly rise;
Then 'tis well to forget and go bravely on
With a smile spite of tear-dimmed eyes.
For one fleeting hour can make you strong,
If you will but heed its call;
And then every day shall be one glad song
Full of love that conquers all.
